By Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, July 12.—With thousands of Elks from nearly a thousand cities of the country on hand for the annual reunion, a setting of purple and white was prepared today for the formal opening of the grand lodge, which inaugurates a week of parades, pageants and almost continuous entertainment.

GALLIPOLI STILL RESISTS ALLIES

Lively Actions Are Reported From Front in Trans-Caucasia.

(Continued From Page 1) troops, which had rushed beyond the positions originally selected, withdrew to the ridge where they have been successfully resisting all Russian attacks. They feel secure in their present positions and it is believed here they can be easily held against whatever forces Russia can throw against them.

War Summary

Heavy fighting in several sectors of the front in France has resulted in a change of ground at one important point, while the Germans won a victory at Soissons, possession of which has long been contested.

German headquarters report a surprise attack near Ailly, in Alsace, resulting in the capture of a French position along a 500-yard front.

German attacks which followed violent cannonading in the Woerwe region were repulsed, Paris reports.

Tentative and Russian armies are in apparent deadlock south of Lublin, where the northward sweep of the Austro-Germans was halted last week.

Unofficial dispatches from Austrian headquarters contain the statement that the Teutonic forces halted north of Krasnik because the object of the campaign against Lemberg had been attained with the capture of that city and the establishment of strong defensive positions to the north and east.

Several successes along the Austro-Italian front are reported by Italian army headquarters in the districts where the Italian forces are engaged in an effort to clear the road to Trieste.

The Turkish war office records the bombardment of Gaba Tepe, near the tip of the Gallipoli peninsula by a cruiser, probably British, which was protected by torpedo craft. It declared the warship was hit and forced to withdraw.

In the British parliament, Premier Asquith declared that a discussion of the shell controversy between the minister of munitions, David Lloyd-George, and the former minister of war, Viscount Haldane, would be detrimental to the best interests of the nation.

British Receive New Pamphlets of Germans

LONDON, July 12, 12:32 p. m.—Many members of the House of Commons and other public men in Great Britain have been the recipients recently of numerous pamphlets from the press of a New York weekly publication which is devoted to the German interests. Quotations from pacifists such as Bernard Shaw, James Ramsey MacDonald and Norman Angell comprise the bulk of the matter.

Increase Peril of German War Gas

By Associated Press. LONDON, July 12.—The Red Cross Society learns that the gases which the Germans are now employing on the Russian front are more deadly and quicker in their action than heretofore, says Reuters' Petrograd correspondent. "Numerous deaths from gases are reported. Respirators are generally inefficient."

By Associated Press. LONDON, July 12, 4:33 p. m.—The correspondent at Amsterdam of the Central News transmits Berlin dispatch announcing the birth of a son to the wife of Prince Oscar, fifth son of Emperor William. The prince was married last August to Countess Basilewicz-Lovtch.

German Steamers on Secret Voyage

By Associated Press. LONDON, July 12.—A Christiania dispatch to the Daily Mail says that twenty-four German steamers which took refuge in Norwegian ports since the beginning of the war have left their harbors and are on their way to the Atlantic.

Official War Statements

FRENCH

By Associated Press. PARIS, July 12 2:55 p. m.—The French war department today issued the following statement:

"There was great activity during the night upon various portions of the front. In the sector of Arras the enemy, after having launched a large number of aeroplanes, attempted to break through the French lines."

"A battle at close quarters on the western boundary of Soissons is progressing. The much fought-for cemetery to the south of Soissons, situated on the road to Arras, is again in our possession. It was captured last night by storm after a fierce struggle. Two French officers and 153 men were taken prisoners and four machine guns and one mine thrower were captured."

"In the north hills in the Ban-de-Sapt a section of wood was cleared of all enemies."

"At Ammerweiler, northwest of Ailly, we made a surprise attack on an enemy division in their trenches. An enemy position was captured over a width of 500 yards. Our troops finally went back into their own line of trenches in accordance with our plans taking a few prisoners with them, unhurt by the enemy."

"In the Eastern Theater—On the road from Suwalki to Kalwaria, in the region of Lipna, our troops took the enemy positions of the enemy over a width of four kilometers (2.4 miles)."

"In the Southern Theater—The situation with the German troops remains unchanged."

RUSSIAN

By Associated Press. PETROGRAD, via London, July 12.—The official communication issued by the war office today says:

"The Garrison of Omsk, during the night of July 9-10, sortied and destroyed enemy saps. In the Edvabno district we captured and blew up many mine galleries."

"On the front of Jemelow-Brychawa, the fighting continues. The enemy yesterday still held his ground on hill 118 and the Koverat farm and delivered vigorous counter-attacks between Brystlitz and the Koverat farm. We repulsed this attack, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy."

"South of Brychawa we took 900 prisoners, among them fourteen officers and three machine guns."

"On all other fronts there have been no important changes."

RESUME PRISONER EXCHANGES.

By Associated Press. BERNE, Switzerland, via Paris, July 12.—The exchange of soldiers wounded and incapacitated for further service has been resumed between France and Germany. Two Swiss hospital trains, each carrying about 200 men, start in the evening, one from France, Germany, and the other from Lyons, France, and pass through Switzerland during the night. Altogether between 4000 and 5000 invalids are at Constantine and Lyons awaiting transportation home.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

"When my daughter had whooping cough she coughed so hard at one time that she had hemorrhage of the lungs. I was terribly alarmed about her condition. Seeling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so highly recommended, I got her a bottle and it relieved the cough at once. Before she had finished two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy she was entirely well." writes Mrs. S. F. Grimes Crooksville, Ohio. For sale by Osgood Bros. drug stores.—Advertisement.

GERMAN

By Associated Press. BERLIN, July 12, via London, 4:05 p. m.—The German headquarters today issued the following official statement:

"In the Western Theater—On the northern slope of Hill No. 60, to the southwest of Ypres, a part of the English position was blown up."

"A battle at close quarters on the western boundary of Soissons is progressing. The much fought-for cemetery to the south of Soissons, situated on the road to Arras, is again in our possession. It was captured last night by storm after a fierce struggle. Two French officers and 153 men were taken prisoners and four machine guns and one mine thrower were captured."

ITALIAN

By Associated Press. ROME, via Paris, July 12.—The official statement issued last night at the headquarters of the Italian general staff was as follows:

"Actions favorable to us have been reported in the Chiasso Valley at Montebiano and in the Rimbianca (Ansic) valley."

"Heavy artillery opened fire on the defensive works at Landro and the advanced works at Sitten (?) after breakfast. Val Grande continues. At break of day Sunday the Italians took the offensive and drove the enemy from their trenches with appreciable loss."

"In the Isenzo valley the enemy again attempted a night counter-attack, which failed."

AUSTRIAN

By Associated Press. VIENNA, July 12, via London.—The following official communication was issued today: "There has been no change on any of the fronts."

BROKER SURRENDERS TO U. S. MARSHAL

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—John G. Hoyt, of the firm of Swaine, Hoyt & Co., who has been out of the city, surrendered himself this morning to the United States Marshal and gave bonds in connection with a charge of violating the neutrality laws. He is one of the brokers accused in connection with the fitting out of the steamer Sacramento, which has been changed from German to American registry. The vessel is alleged to have discharged its cargo to the German cruiser Lepid.

Kenneth Croft, indicted in connection with alleged violation of neutrality laws, involving the recruiting of British soldiers here, has been arrested in Los Angeles. He will be brought here by the United States Marshal of the southern district after a hearing before the commissioner in Los Angeles. Croft obtained his release on bail in Los Angeles.

PUBLICITY EXPERT TO ADDRESS CLUB

San Francisco Advertising Man
Will Be Guest of Business Men.

George Eberhard, head of the Eberhard Advertising Service of San Francisco, a recognized expert in advertising matters in the United States, will be the guest of honor and the speaker before the Oakland Commercial Club tomorrow night.

Eberhard has given considerable time and thought to the psychological effect of advertising and the very interesting idea will be brought out with a blackboard demonstration during his talk before the club.

Eberhard also is the coast representative for the Sterling Gum Company. This is a new gum product and will be launched throughout the United States by a very systematic and energetic newspaper campaign with the assistance of several unique street characters.

It is the hope that a large concourse will greet Eberhard, and particularly any and everybody interested in any phase of advertising.

DATE IS SET FOR BIG BANQUET TO CLARK

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Announcements were sent out yesterday by Sidney Van Wyck that the date of the dinner to be given to Speaker Champ Clark by the Democratic State Central Committee had been changed to next Friday, July 13. The dinner will be held in Norman hall, at the Fairmont Hotel, beginning at 6:30.

Invitations to speak at the dinner were sent out yesterday to Fred H. Hall, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee; United States Senator James D. Phelan; United States Senator Francis G. Newlands; United States Senator Benjamin Tillman of South Carolina; Governor Johnson, Mayor Rolph and President H. D. Tuley.

Speaker Clark is scheduled to arrive here on Thursday. It is not intended to make the dinner an exclusive Democratic affair, but rather to have men of all parties attend.

Those wishing to attend the dinner may procure tickets from Sidney Van Wyck, at his office in the Clunie building, or from Robert P. Troy, chairman of the reception committee of one hundred that will greet Speaker Clark upon his arrival here.

Santa Cruz Girl Weds Oaklander

MRS. C. T. EDWARDS.

Miss Lucille Majors, a Santa Cruz society girl, yesterday became the bride of C. T. Edwards, of East Oakland. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, on Market street. Fifty relatives and friends were present at a reception given after the wedding.

The bride was given in a white satin dress trimmed in lace, and carried a bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Alice Lasney. Claude Maxwell acted as best man. Following the reception, the newly-married pair left for a month's honeymoon in the south.

Mrs. Edwards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. J. Majors of Santa Cruz. She is well known in the Surf City, and was fete at a number of affairs prior to the wedding. Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, and is in business in San Francisco.

Triple Attempt of Aged Fireman
at Suicide Proves Successful.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—After a triple attempt at suicide, an aged fireman, Thomas J. Edwards, died yesterday morning from a wound inflicted by a razor.

Edwards, 78 years old, was employed by the department of electricity, and lived at 1015 Broadway street. He had been ill for some time, and was very weak.

He was found by his wife, who had been out for some time, lying on the floor of his room. He had cut his throat with a razor, and had jumped out of the window.

He was taken to the hospital, but died before he could be operated on.

RE-ELECT L. C. FRANCIS THIRD BATTALION HEAD

Major L. C. Francis was re-elected, by unanimous vote, as major of the third battalion of the National Guard of California at an election of officers held in the San Francisco armory building yesterday afternoon.

Major Francis, of the engineering corps, presided at the meeting, at which thirty of the officers of the local companies of the National Guard were present.

The meeting was followed by a banquet at the San Francisco restaurant, at which Colonel D. A. Smith, commanding officer of the Fifth Infantry, presided as toastmaster. The speakers included Lieutenant Colonel Hunt, Major Dockweiler, Major Francis, Colonel Schaffey of the Coast Artillery Corps and Captain Burt of the United States army, who is a special instructor in this district to the National Guard.

RUGS PURLOINED WHILE LANDLADY IS SOUGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—After asking for the landlady at the Hotel Reich, 550 Sutter street, this morning, two young men deliberately removed two Oriental rugs from the parlor and made their escape.

The bellboy had gone in search of Mrs. Amalia Reich, the manager, and the thieves set themselves immediately to work. Moving the chairs and tables to one side, they rolled up the rugs, which were valued at $140, and calmly walked out of the front door.

'EFFICIENCY OF CHURCH,' THEME

Christian Endeavor Workers
Ponder Over Social Problems.

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—At yesterday's session of the Christian Endeavor society, the theme of the evening was the "Efficiency of the Church." The society, which is a part of the United Methodist church, met in the city hall.

The speaker, Rev. H. P. Nixon, of the city hall, spoke of the need of efficiency in church work. He said that the church must be able to do more for the world than the Romans ever did.
